Jihad - Wikipedia

Jihad is a concept in Islam that refers to the struggle for the sake of God and His cause. It is a central theme in the Quran and the Hadith. The word 'jihad' is derived from the Arabic root 'j-h-d', which means to strive, struggle, or fight. There are two main types of jihad: the greater jihad (al-jihad al-akbar) and the lesser jihad (al-jihad al-asghar). The greater jihad is the inner struggle against one's own weaknesses and sins, while the lesser jihad is the external struggle against other people or nations. The concept of jihad is often misunderstood as a call to violence, but it is actually a call to moral and spiritual strength.
