Alienation and Acceleration: Towards a Critical Theory of Karl Marx's theory of alienation describes the estrangement (Entfremdung) of people from aspects of their Gattungswesen ("species-essence") as a consequence of living in a society of stratified social classes. The alienation from the self is a consequence of being a mechanistic part of a social class, the condition of which estranges a person from their humanity. The theoretic basis of ...

Alienation is the transformation of people's own labour into a power which rules them as if by a kind of natural or supra-human law. The origin of alienation is commodity fetishism "the belief that inanimate things (commodities) have human powers (i.e., value) able to govern the activity of human beings.
