Dove Arising had an element I wish I saw in more books: a space setting. Unfortunately, I never really felt like I was in space; the setting wasn't lush enough. With elements reminiscent of The Hunger Games and Divergent trilogies--though not blatantly or in a way that bothered me--this is the tale of a government that's not all it's cracked up to be,

The World of the Dove Chronicles It's 2347, and Earth as we know it no longer exists. Due to climate change, sea level rose many meters, and super storms inundated coastal cities like New York and Shanghai. Twenty-first-century nations fought over fossil fuels, drinkable water, and food, and the cities within them battled over funds. Desperate to stop the madness, nations asked their ...
