Life Among the Giants is a most enjoyable book, both from a breeder's viewpoint and as a dog lover. This book tells about the joys and the difficulties of owning, not just one, but several of these hairy, slobbery beasts. The writer's love for these dogs shines through. A must for any Newf owner or anyone considering getting a Newfoundland dog!

Barry ZeVan: My Life Among The Giants, A Memoir is a fascinating collection of stories and anecdotes shared by a most amiable author. Those recollections, based on his attendance at Lodge and the continuing friendships he's enjoyed with the other alumnae of that institution, are fabulous. ZeVan is an enthusiastic and accomplished writer who quickly charmed his way into my life as he shared the ...
