Shiloh sure does like the walking down the side of the road idea. This is a sweet slow slow slow burn romance between a young man who is finding his self and feet and Joe, who is just a little bit older, and we really don't know much about. This story is kind of a sketch in some places but has depth in others.

the Eastern Corinth Road marks the "Hornet's Nest: Center of Union Line." Historians have expanded on the veteran's remembrances and continue to argue the importance of the Hornet's Nest. Almost all the major monographs on the battle, as well as media presentations such as Shiloh: Portrait of a Battle, focus on the action that took place in the center of the battlefield. These works ...
