Wildbow, I know you were talking about potentially editing and making this into a ebook or print book. Might I suggest using lulu.com? you would be able to sell the books on a made to order basis, thereby incurring less cost to yourself. You can set the price to cost exactly the amount of production, or any amount more for yourself, and it usually is free to host on the website. They take a ...

There's no official option, I think because Wildbow said they'd prefer not to release a full ebook until the (years long) process of editing is completed. There are a couple of low tech options like opening the next 7 chapters in separate tabs before you get on the plane or copy-pasting a bunch of chapters into a note (tricky to do without accidentally reading the first and last lines of each ...
